Baby

You were my baby & you lost my soul
you were my baby & you lost my soul
you were my baby but you lost my soul
you were my baby & you lost my soul

& now, its time to leave, please don't we've even got some time to see the sunrise.
Why don't you just see that this is all a mess, i've got my shoes on and theres no point even saying goodbye

& now, its time to leave, please don't we've even got some time to see the sunrise.
Why don't you just see that this is all a mess, i've got my shoes on and there is no
point even saying goodbye

You were my baby & you lost my soul
you were my baby & you lost my soul
you were my baby but you lost my soul
you were my baby & you lost my soul

Why did you ever have to leave?
What did you ever see in me?
When I lost my MOJO, slow were the days we had to go.

You were my baby & you lost my soul
you were my baby & you lost my soul
you were my baby but you lost my soul
you were my baby & you lost my soul
You were my baby & you lost my soul
you were my baby & you lost my soul
you were my baby but you lost my soul
you were my baby & you lost my soul

Jerry

Ahhhhh

Ahhhhh ooOOHH

Jerry, you were slippy
& you fell to the ground.
Resembling our granddads
they were sipping whisky wine

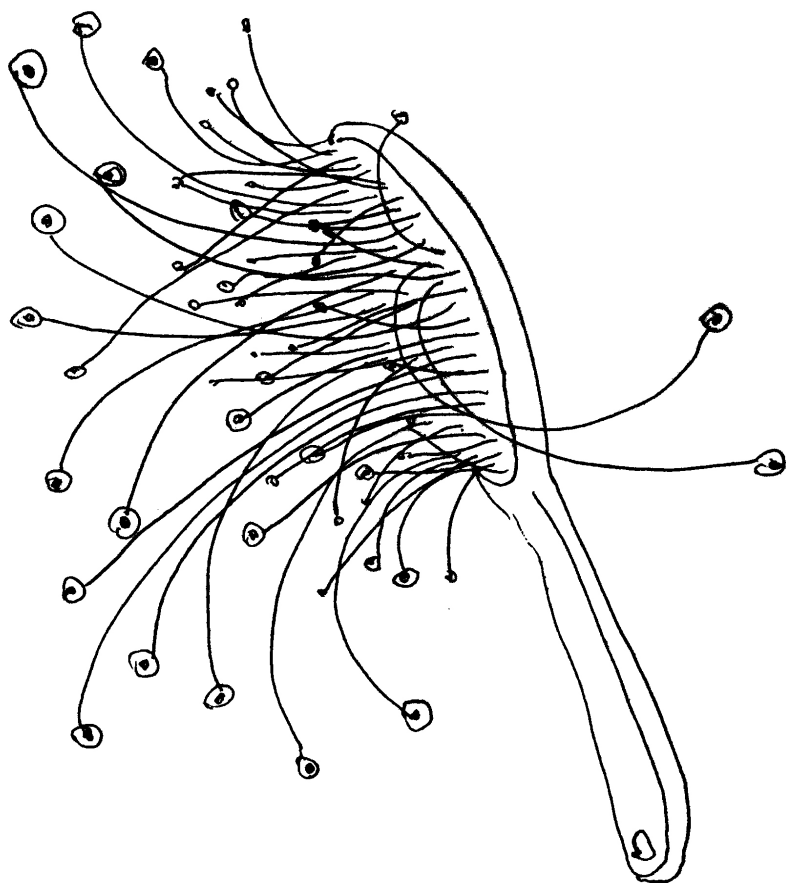

Aaaaaaooooaaah

Aaaaaaooooaaah

Oooooooooooooo

They were sipping whisky wine

Ellie, you were frisky
& I was shopping for whisky wine.

Two more Sleeps

Hello, how are you?
I'm not feeling home.

Hello, how are you?
I'm not feeling home.

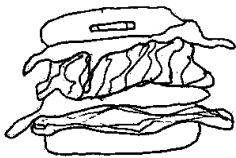

Wearing myself thin
& my legs are thin

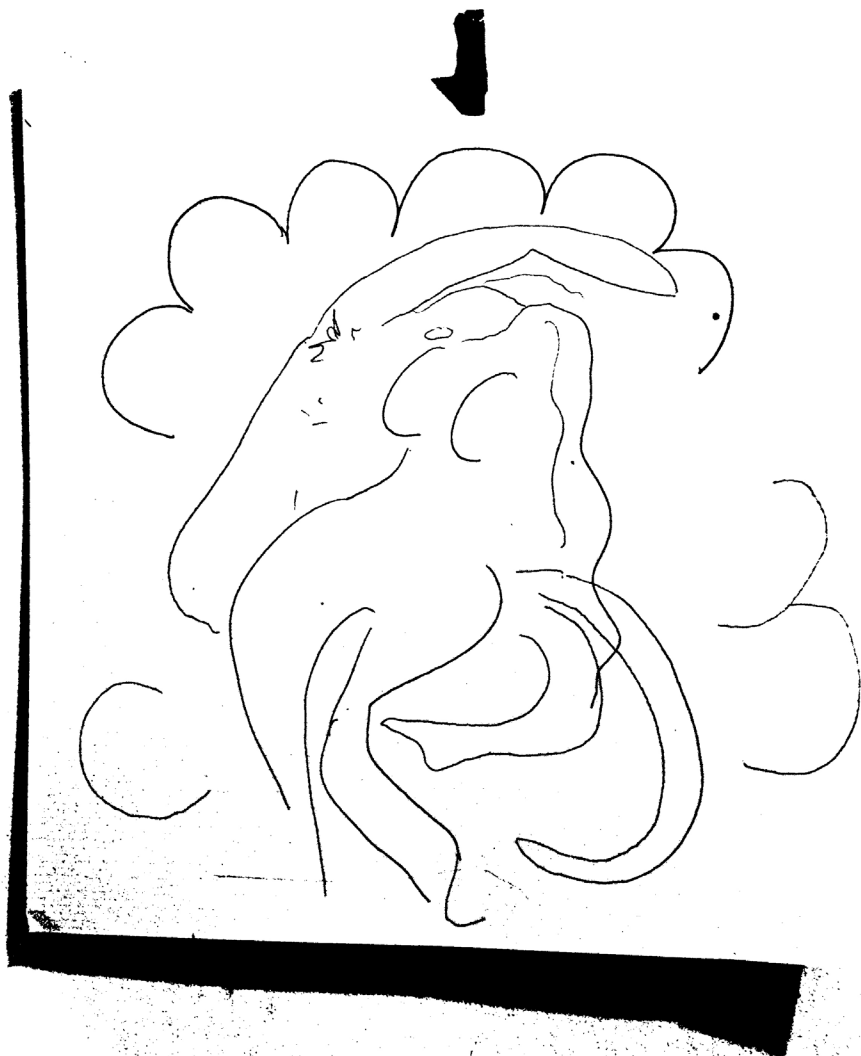

Hello, how are you?
I'm not feeling home, where i'm 'sposed to go

Two more sleeps, two more sleeps
Two more sleeps, two more sleeps,
Two more sleeps, two more sleeps,
Until I find home

So goodbye my lovely friend
It will always end
We fixed all that we could mend
I'm done feeling home where i'm 'sposed to go

Two more sleeps, two more sleeps
Two more sleeps, two more sleeps,
Two more sleeps, two more sleeps,
Two more sleeps, two more sleeps
Two more sleeps, two more sleeps,
Two more sleeps, two more sleeps
Two more sleeps, two more sleeps,
Until I find home

Teenage Boy

We were like teenage boys.
Room was a mess, no one was in.
To be as free, as free as back then.
Making snow angels in the clothes.

There's lipstick on my sleeve, somebody's missing me x2

It's easy to stop caring, to wee in a watering can.
It's easy to forget to watch your hands.
To be as free, as free as back then.
To be as mean as a teenage woman.

We can make it work
I've got something up my sleeve. x2

You say I live like a teenage boy.
I think you just need a cocktail and some fun.
Come in.
Have fun.
Come in.
Have fun.

Medieval

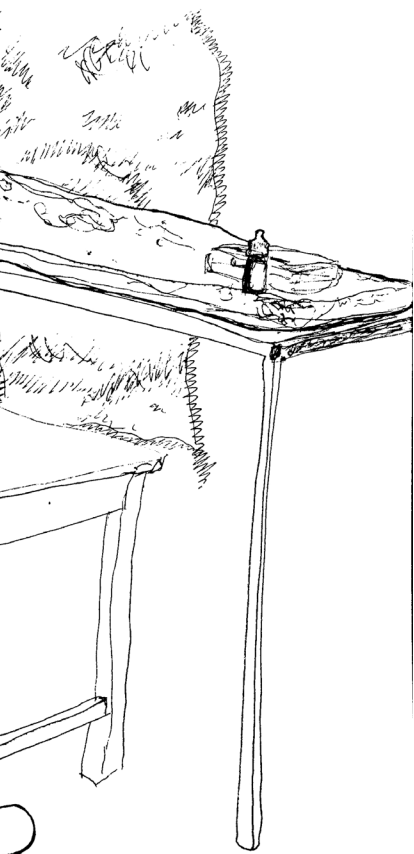

Well it starts as it ends when you can't get yourself out of bed.
When the world was your friend, our rotten earth our golden hands.
Leave these windows and begin to mend.
Take my hand and I will give you one more chance.

What life? What love? There's nothing left of us x2

Even when we tried to love we lost, hooray for us.
I need your love song, slug song so I don't wither up.
When a lie was enough, when our time wasn't done - I'm slow.
Not as slow as the dawn, not as fast or forlorn but it lasts.

What life? What love? There's nothing left for us. x4

Summer Hell

Plastic tights
Stomach bones are weak again
pick up the phone call down your cheekiness

Shall I ring the bell?
The neighbour came by
to let me get to
my summer hell

I could hear you laughing
in the back yard window ajar
the birds and the bees are dead
sitting on the window

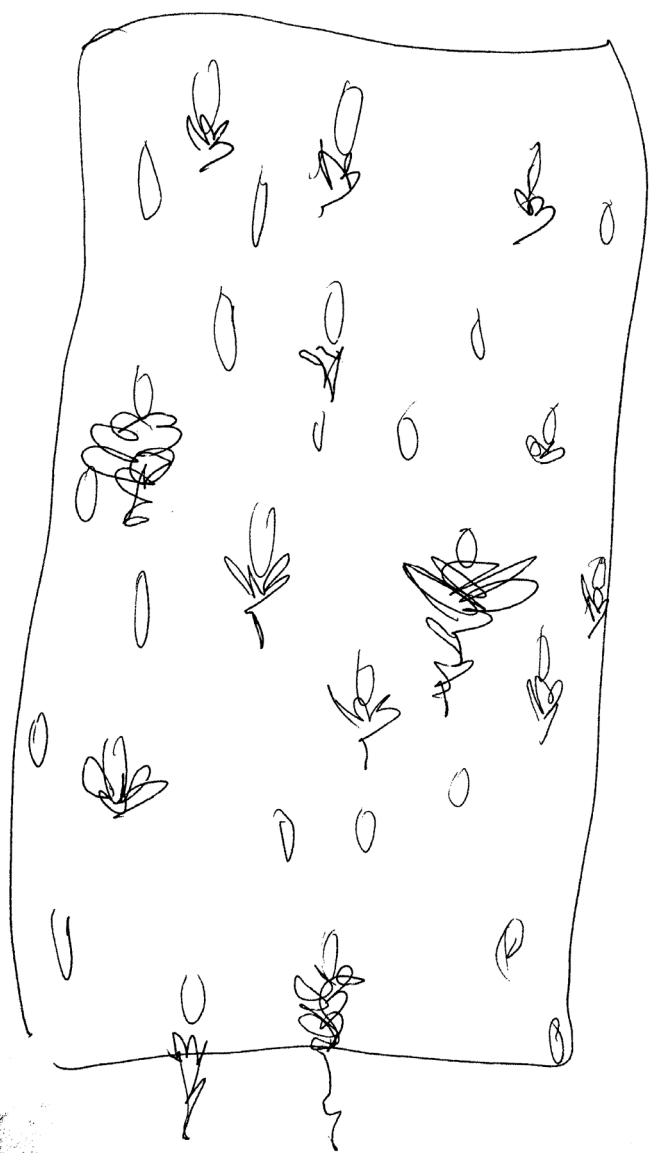

Shall I ring the bell?
The neighbour came by
to let me get to
my summer hell

Woh AH!
WHAT the hell?
Her name is Daisy?
What?

Merry

I felt I was on, on a merry go round.
You'll sure a son, do you feel it?
I felt I was on, on a merry go round.
I'll save the sun, and you'll feel it.

All our love, we were one.

'Till you left me and the whole world fell away.
And you saved me darling, I wanted to say.
That it never hurt so much, when the merry go round stopped.
And it stopped.

I felt I was on, on a merry go round.
We'll sure a son, do you feel it?
I felt I was on, on a merry go round.
I'll save the sun, do you feel it?

It's time to call it's morning,
I didn't sleep 'till dawn and I found it's never too late.
It's time to call it's morning,
I didn't sleep 'till dawn and I found for once it was too late to come back.

I felt I was on, on a merry go round.
You'll sure a son do you feel it?
I felt I was on, on a merry go round.
I'll save the sun, can you feel it?

Young

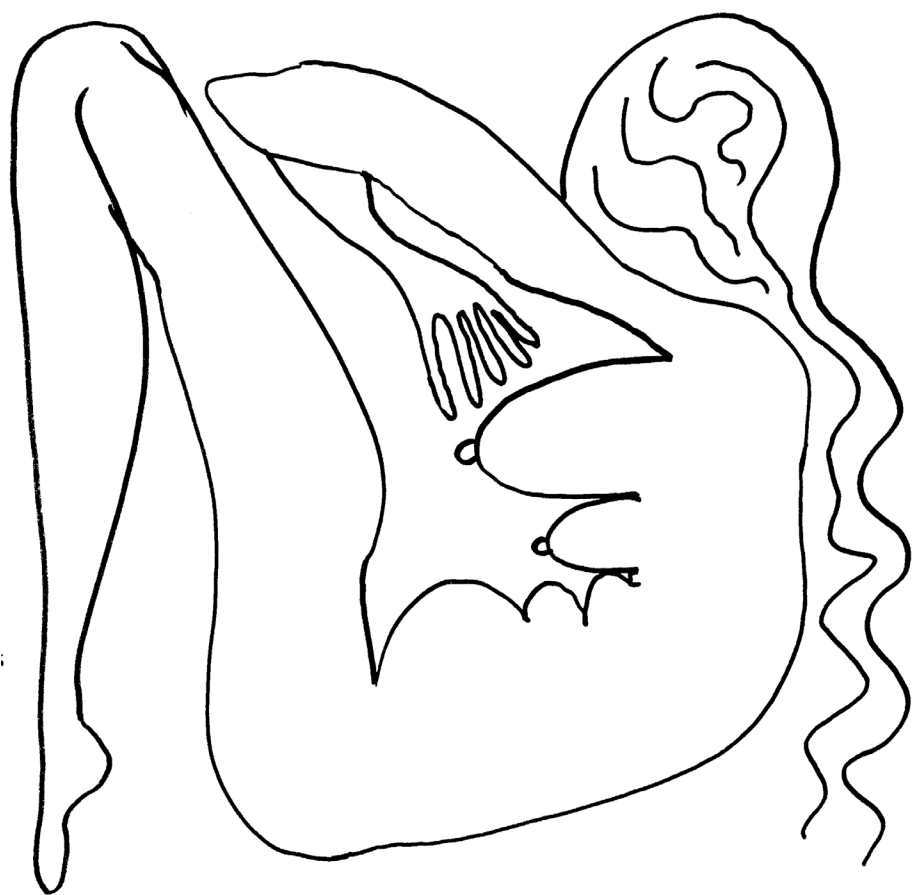

We were just young and dumb, found someone to have some fun with.
Haven't found anyone but I'm still dumb, yeah.

Let's make pretend we are good friends, I'll learn to crush you in the end.

Can't blame anything else, I was acting for some wealth.
Come listen to more of these nonsense fallacies.
We were in the sun, you were young and dumb.
Have you found the one? Are you still dumb? Yeah.

Let's make pretend we are good friends,
I'll learn to crush you in the end.

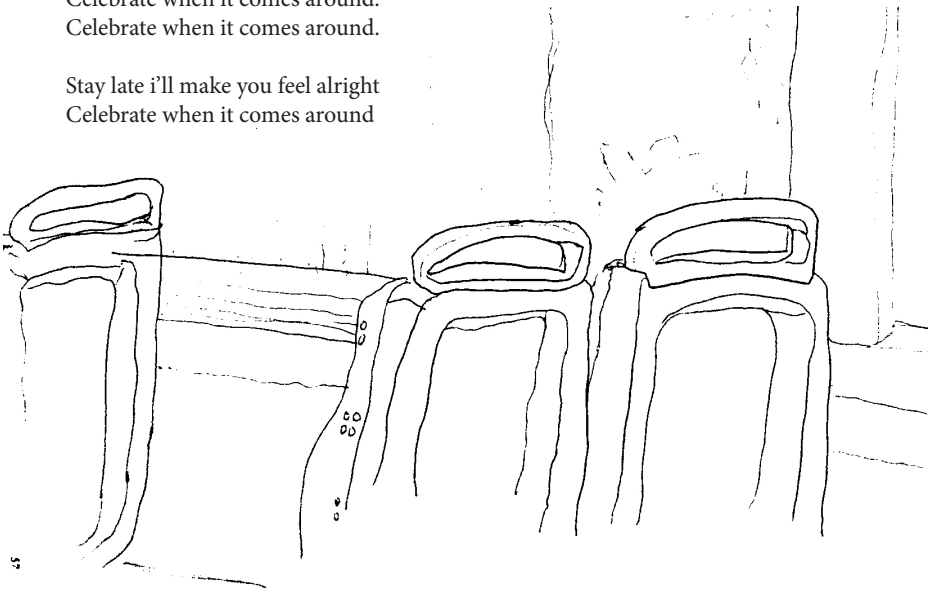

In the end.

Blues

Stay, you're all that I have since you went away, away man.
It's all in your hands, in your womb man.
It's all in your hands, in your womb man.
Wait, i'm up and i'm late
and its your chance now.
Celebrate when it comes around.
Celebrate when it comes around.

Stay late i'll make you feel alright
Celebrate when it comes around
